[1] Generally, an estate files a Federal estate tax return (Form 706) in the year after a decedent's death. So, in 2020, most returns were filed for deaths that occurred in 2019, for which the filing threshold was $11.40 million of gross estate. Because of filing extensions, however, some returns were filed in 2020 for deaths that occurred prior to 2019, for which filing thresholds were lower. There are also a small number of returns filed for deaths that occurred in 2020, for which the filing threshold was $11.58 million.

n/a = not available for this year.

[1] Generally, an estate files a Federal estate tax return (Form 706) in the year after a decedent's death. So, in 2013, most returns were filed for deaths that occurred in 2012, for which the filing threshold was $5.12 million. Because of filing extensions, however, some returns were filed in 2013 for deaths that occurred prior to 2012, for which filing thresholds were lower.

[1] Generally, an estate files a Federal estate tax return (Form 706) in the year after a decedent's death. So, in 2012, most returns were filed for deaths that occurred in 2011, for which the filing threshold was $5 million. Because of filing extensions, however, some returns were filed in 2012 for deaths that occurred prior to 2011, for which filing thresholds were lower. The number of returns filed for deaths in 2010 was reduced by a provision in the tax law that enabled estates to opt out of the estate tax system and instead file Form 8939, Allocation of Increase in Basis for Property Acquired From a Decedent.

[1]Generally, an estate files a Federal estate tax return (Form 706) in the year after a decedent's death. However, the estate tax was repealed temporarily for 2010 before being reinstated with the passage of the Tax Relief, Unemployment Insurance Reauthorization and Job Creation Act in December 2010. The law, which was retroactive for all 2010 decedents, raised the estate tax exemption level to $5.0 million and also allowed estates to opt out of the estate tax system and instead file Form 8939, Allocation of Increase in Basis for Property Acquired From a Decedent. These tax law changes, combined with extended filing deadlines for 2010 returns, resulted in relatively few estate tax returns being filed for 2010 decedents during 2011. Therefore, this table is not comparable to prior filing year estate tax tables.

[1] The majority of estates file Federal estate tax returns (Form 706) in the year after a decedent's death.  [1] The majority of estates file Federal estate tax returns in the year after a decedent's death. So, in 2006, most returns were filed for deaths that occurred in 2005, for which the filing threshold was $1.5 million. Because of filing extensions, however, some returns were filed in 2006 for deaths that occurred prior to 2005. In 2006, the estate tax filing threshold increased to $2.0 million.

* Estimates should be used with caution because of the small number of sample returns on which they were based.

 Data deleted or combined to prevent disclosure of individual taxpayer data.

² The farm assets category does not include farmland. Farmland was included in the real estate category.

NOTE: Detail may not add to totals because of rounding.
